Related subject: Goole and Pocklington constituency

I am disgusted that my new boundaries for voting are goole and Pocklington. For 1 Pocklington is a York postcode and I am a Hull postcode. 2 Goole is miles away. I for one will not be voting for an area and councillors that are not within my area. It seems the government just do what the hell they want to and sod the people and what they want. My 2 sons have also said they will not be voting maybe you should consult the voters be4 making abutary decisions for the members of the public. And don't get me started on doctors and dentists, it's about time the government sorted this country out and thought about its citizens and there needs be4 deciding on stuff like boundries and the likes.

Apologies if I have sent to wrong people it's the only page I could find to complain.
