I believe you are asking for local comments to assist your current review. I feel that Burstwick, where I live, should be in the electoral ward which includes Hedon. Thus us because the village has no really geographic connection to any of the services that the electoral ward it is currently in whereas it is closely linked to Hedon and Thorngumbald for services, schools, doctors, dentist library, shops, post office, council office etc etc. No connection at all with Withernsea or the other villages.
