Related subject: Ulverston

I think furness and westmorland should be councilled separately. Ulverston feels more connected to the furness area (Barrow Dalton etc) than the south lakes (Kendal Windermere etc) and now being lumped in with Penrith feels like the council don't have an understanding of the demographics of the south out the county. Outside of the tourist traps there is such different needs that those areas in the LDNP.
