The Seacombe ward makes sense as it is but the future development around Wirral Waters might change the numbers.

I can't tell if the plan is to follow Liverpool and reduce the headcount of councillors and have one per ward?

Seacombe has lost most of it's shops other than a Tesco, Herons, Home n Bargain so people generally head to Liscard, the retail parks at Bidston or Birkenhead. There are regen plans but they are far into the future.
