The Somerset Council Boundary for Minehead should, indeed must, be the same as the Boundary for the Town Council. To do this, the Somerset Council Boundary must be expanded to include Alcombe and Ellicombe. Because Minehead Town Council covers the whole of the Town, Somerset Council should also do the same, and have a Two Member Ward, rather than split the town in two for the sake of nothing. Whilst not in this review, Minehead's Wards should be expanded to include all of the Butlin's site, and a "Rogue" house or two, in Mallard Road, which fall outside the current Parish Boundary. If this was included in the Somerset Council Ward Boundary, it will be easier to carry out in a future Parish Boundary review.
