Related subject: Dishforth & Dalton (Catton Parish)

I fully support Catton Parish being in the new Dishforth and Dalton area. It makes perfect sense and we visit and associate with Ripon far more than Thirsk or Northallerton. My only request is that an alternative name to Dishforth & Dalton be considered as both are settlements that are rather tucked away with no facilities that draw other local residents in (e.g. no shops) and are not settlements that most people in the area regularly visit or associate with. How about "Vale of York" or "Vale of Mowbray" or perhaps "Vale" as the area covers the historic transition area from the Vale of Mowbray to the Vale of York, although your map has it all as the Vale of York?
