Firstly, in respect of your naming proposal for Kirkbymoorside and dales. Absolutely do not use the preposition "the" as we are the moors not "the dales". Preferably use the correct term and say Kirkbymoorside and the moors.

Secondly, however, I would rather you look at creating a constituency based on the whole of the North Yorkshire Moors and hopefully we might get someone who understands living and working in the moors National Park. The current link with Kirkbymoorside but separation from the Danby and Glaisdale areas means we are treated as an adjunct to Kirkbymoorside rather than part of the moorland community
