I live in Thirsk and don't especially appreciate the disruption will cause either in Thirsk or across the county.

The proposal is that the civil parish of Landmoth cum Catto is added to Thirsk Division. It has a shared parish council arrangement with parishes proposed to remain in Hillside Division including the Siltons. If Landmoth cum Catto remained in Hillside the shared parish council would all be in one Division and better deal with a single county councillor. My proposal would not significantly affect the voting population of either division or spread the parliamentary constituency across extra divisions.
