

Westmorland and Furness

Personal Details:

Name: [REDACTED]
Email: [REDACTED]
Postcode: [REDACTED]
Organisation Name: (Member of the public)

Comment text:

Related subject: Kirkby stephen

There is a trend to reduce reps in the rural areas compared to the more densely populated areas, the south west of the area particularly gains. Whilst this may cover the same number of people, percentage wise the town vote will always then win and reduce the influence of the rural councillors. Rural services are already not comparable and this has the potential to increase this further. I see rural communities losing out further to the voice of the towns.

Attached Documents:

None attached