

North Yorkshire

Personal Details:

Name: Mr RICHARD BRUCE

Email: [REDACTED]

Postcode: [REDACTED]

Organisation Name: Nidderdale Plus (Representative of a local organisation)

Comment text:

Related subject: Nidderdale down to Hampsthwaite

This is the most ridiculous division that could be put forward. The area of Nidderdale National Landscape (formerly Nidderdale AONB) is roughly the area that Nidderdale plus serves in respect of being an information hub, providing community transport, library and tourist information centre. Pateley happens to be the village in which our office is situated but we have numerous outreach services. I am also a resident of Darley and the current boundary structure works. Whoever dreamt up this nonsensical map has little idea how the current area of Nidderdale operates and the fact that Pateley forms the centre of Nidderdale for a large range of facilities and services. To chop it in two and tack on part of the Dales doesn't work I completely reject this fanatical notion.

Attached Documents:

None attached