It makes far sense to take the further west extent of Castle (Eardisley and west) and merge it with Kington. The community ties between Brilley or Eardisley to Kington are far stronger than to the eastern parts of the existing Castle.

The A4111 provides a fairly natural fault line, although obviously existing parish boundaries split across it. I'd suggest Eardisley (Group - inc Whitney & Winforton), Brilley, Huntington, Kington Rural, Kington Town, Lower Harpton as a new westmost ward.
