South Tarrant Valley Parish Council have been made aware that there is a proposed name change by Dorset Council to the ward that is currently called Hill Forts and the Upper Tarrants. This ward encompasses Tarrant Hinton, Tarrant Gunville and Tarrant Monkton. The name change proposed is to become the Tarrants ward.

Locally this will be very confusing to residents in the area, as the proposed Tarrants ward does not include Tarrant Keyneston, Tarrant Rushton, Tarrant Rawston and Tarrant Crawford. These villages are proposed to remain within the Cranborne Chase ward. The Parish Council would therefore like to request consideration be given to creating a more distinct name for the proposed Tarrants ward as it does not reflect accurately the area it is covering.
